

I was also an active member of Jack and Jill of America of the Newark division during my senior year. I participated in planning many of the group activities and even lead my own event focused on goal setting and touring colleges.

While being in Jack and Jill I served on the election committee. My responsibility was to make sure that everyone running for office had met the requirements. I was also responsible for counting the votes after the election.