HERE TO RISK MY HEART

ABOUT THE BIO & HIGHLIGHTS ARTIST

amaka. is a Nigerian-born, Alt-RnB artist in Toronto's East end. Her genre exploring style and heart-tugging lyrics create unhurried moments with listeners.

In the summer of 2018, amaka. released her first EP which was ultimately featured on Bandcamp's list of 'Best Soul Projects'.

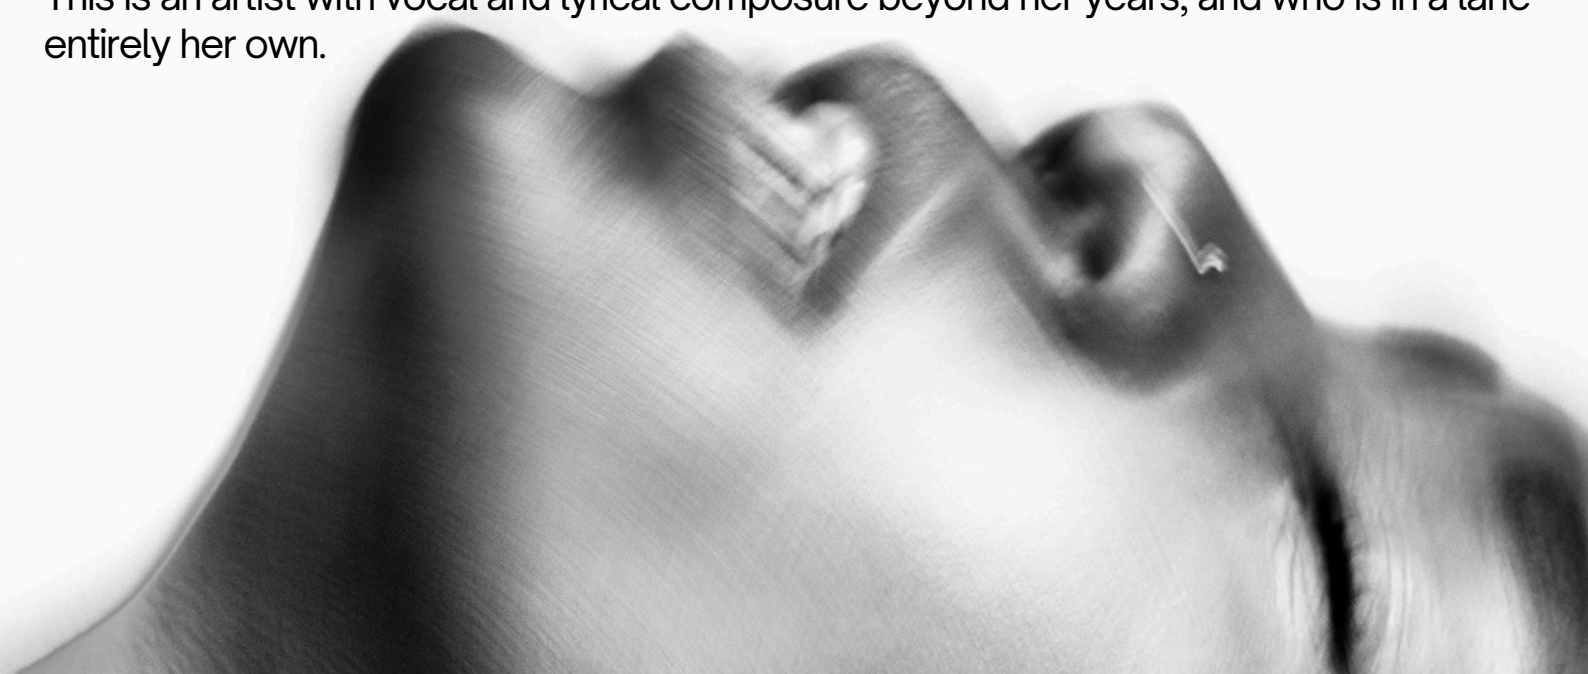

2019-2021 saw amaka.'s releases garner attention from platforms such as Toronto's NOW Magazine- one of their 'Ones to Watch'- and CBC Music - who described the artist as "the embodiment of unyielding vulnerability". amaka.'s song 'Ceilings' from her sophomore EP secured her the SOCAN Young Songwriter's Award and was featured in a film aired at Cannes Film Festival.

amaka. has since taken on performances such as Canadian Music Week and Pop Montreal. She has graced iconic venues such as Danforth Music Hall (supporting LOONY), The Opera House, and The Velvet Underground. In the fall of 2022, amaka. joined the artist Charlie Burg for his North American tour.

2024 saw amaka. release her anticipated EP/film, 'how's your head?'. The beloved project has received awards for Best Music Film at New York International Film Festival and the World Film Festival in Cannes. These songs have traveled the world with amaka. this year from Atlanta to Rotterdam for her first European show.

amaka.'s hypnotic songs have been heard on playlists such as Amazon's 'The New Black', Spotify's 'Fresh Finds', Apple's 'New in R&B', 'Breaking R&B', etc. and have graced CBC radio stations across Canada, as well as BBC Radio 1Xtra.

This is an artist with vocal and lyrical composure beyond her years, and who is in a lane entirely her own.
