

If efficiency is your number 1 priority... THIS IS FOR YOU!

Hi! I'm Shequana, the CEO and Founder of The SAVA Group.

Not long ago I went from being on cloud nine in my business to business hell in a matter of months.

Are you serious about your business and ready to scale?

The business that I once loved had become something I dreaded...that was until I discovered ClickUp and Dubsado.

"Companies lose 20 to 30 percent of their revenue due to inefficiencies each year"

These two systems changed my business (and if I'm being honest, they changed my life). I went from working in my business 24/7 not really getting anything done and no direction, to knowing exactly what would move my business forward and the action steps to get there.

What does this have to do with you...EVERYTHING! I want you to experience the transformational freedom my team and I have experienced since incorporating these two systems in my business.

"Shequana Hughes and The SAVA Group have really helped me recession-proof my business this year. They've done that by helping me build longer term building blocks of my business like infrastructure, planning automating processes, exploring and really identifying the technology sources that are right for me"

Teresa

The SAVA Group would like to FREE you from the GRIND by helping you set up your Project Management (ClickUp) and Customer Relationship Management (Dubsado) systems for optimum efficiency.

Why systems matters:

Deliver
an amazing client experience.

Take on more clients without taking on more work.

"Systems are a serious matter. When they work they bring freedom."

ClickUp - Get all of your work done in one place. Manage projects and your team with this completely customizable system.

Dubsado - An all-in-one client management tool that allows you to send contracts and invoices, handle some project management, create questionnaires and other forms, manage book keeping, track your time, send and receive emails, and so much more.

Once your systems are set, say goodbye to feeling overwhelmed.

Who we help?

Female service providers and consultants who are interested in scaling their businesses to have more time to focus on the things that matter most.

How we help?

If you're new to these systems or starting from a blank slate the task of getting them set up can be daunting and overwhelming, we're here to alleviate that stress by setting up your systems for you.

Spend less time worrying about what you're not getting done or what you've missed and more time on your bottomline.
