LEES ASSOCIATES
ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN

Practising the finest architecture and design since 1981, Lees Associates is one of the UK's premium boutique architecture practices. Headquartered in London, the studio has 40 years' experience in the prime and super-prime markets, both in the UK and internationally.

Led by partners, Andrew Paulson and Kathryn Archer Lees Associates' team of skilled architects, designers and technicians are dedicated to the highest standards of design and delivery. Between them, Andrew and Kathryn have nearly 50 years' experience at Lees Associates and take a leading role in every one of our projects.

Prime development: Camp End Manor — luxury new-build home

Why Lees Associates?

- We are one of London's premium architecture practices, specialising in the international luxury market
- We work at the most prestigious addresses, designing and delivering some of the finest projects in the world
- The practice has nearly 40 years' international experience in the prime and super-prime markets in both the Far East and the West
- We offer a completely flexible service, working harmoniously with our clients' other specialist consultants in order to coordinate and deliver the highest level of design and professional service

Lees Associates' level of service, quality of design and professional conduct has been of the highest quality. Throughout the process Lees Associates have established themselves as a key part of the design team and I would have no hesitation in recommending them for future developments.

— Savills

It was vital that the detail and execution of the design for the development at Camp End Manor was handled correctly. Lees Associates managed this in an efficient and expert manner. The end result is better than I had hoped for and I would have no hesitation in recommending Lees Associates and their team to anybody.
