Payton List

A Shining Example On & Off the Diamond who made waves in three sports at Beaver Area High School, James Madison pitcher Payton List is primed to rack up Ks at the top of the college ranks. As the daughter of college athletes, Payton knows that hard work and dedication are the keys to victory, especially when the competition heats up and she's staring down the best the Sun Belt has to offer.

Throughout her softball career, her drive and competitive spirit led to her immense success both from the circle and at the plate. These qualities helped make her not only an amazing athlete but also a great student, leader, and role model. Majoring in sport management, Payton is learning to understand the business of sports.
