

Mackenzie Boyd

A determined competitor who made her name known throughout the WPIAL as a talented softball player and kicker for her football team, Mackenzie has never been afraid to take on new challenges — from trying a new sport to taking on a bigger role on Penn State - Beaver Softball team.

Throughout her softball career, she has found ways to set herself apart from teammates and competitors with her focus on getting the little things right. Meanwhile, her charismatic personality and dedication to education — majoring in business administration with a minor in religious studies — signal a bright future ahead, both on and off the field.

MACKENZIE QUOTES

“ One of the main things we focused on [at Beaver Area] was just working on the fundamentals. Even before we had [actual] practices, it was all fundamentals and working on getting the small things correct. I've been so successful at W&J because I have a drive to get these fundamentals correctly and get every play right. ”
