

Sofia DeCerb

A Driven Duke Sofia started playing soccer because of the passion her grandfather had for the sport. With her family always in her corner, she put in the hard work and dedication to become one of the most recognized goalkeepers in the WPIAL.

Throughout her soccer career, Sofia has learned what it takes to be an elite athlete, earning herself a spot on the James Madison University Women's Soccer team. She knows that competing in the Sun Belt Conference with the Dukes will be a challenge, but it's one that she's more than ready for.

SOFIA QUOTES

“ I always knew I wanted to play soccer at a competitive level and that I would really continue to be pushed to develop. At JMU, I know I will get that. Plus, I love the coaching staff, team environment, campus, and play style. ”

COACH QUOTES

“ Sofia exhibits all of the traits you want in a modern goalkeeper: great with her feet, long frame to cover more of the goal, good organizer in the back, and a person her teammates love to fight for. ”

Coach Walters,
James Madison University - Women's Soccer Coach
