

Hurricane Dave Smith is a prominent figure in radio programming and has received numerous awards for his outstanding work. He has been recognized for his contributions to various charitable organizations, business excellence, and leadership skills. His success in programming 12 number-one-rated radio stations, from classic rock to hip hop, has made him a highly respected figure in the industry.

In 2023 Dave was honored with The Presidents Volunteer Service Award, a recognition given to individuals who have made significant contributions to their communities through volunteer service. He has also served on the Board of Directors for Hosea Feed the Hungry and Homeless, demonstrating his commitment to helping those in need. In addition, Dave was inducted into the National Black Radio Hall of Fame in 2022 and was inducted as a Radio Living Legend from the Living Legends Foundation.

As a certified neurolinguistic programming coach, Dave has a unique approach to motivating and coaching his teams. According to Radio Ink Magazine, in 2013, his coaching style was highly effective, placing him as radio's 19th- Best Program Director in America. He has also been profiled in numerous magazines, showcasing his innovative leadership style.

Dave's leadership skills have been tested in various roles, including serving as the Executive Producer for the largest hip-hop concert in the southeast, Birthday Bash ATL. Under his leadership, the concert sold out for ten consecutive years, demonstrating his ability to unite people and create successful events.

As VP of Programming and Operations, Dave worked closely with the sales teams to generate over $30 million annually in the Atlanta, Ga, market. He understands the importance of teamwork and how it can impact revenue, emphasizing that he helps generate revenue.

Dave has received numerous accolades for his contributions to the industry, including two businessmen of the year awards, an icon award, and a trendsetter award. His success has resulted from his dedication to his craft and his ability to motivate and inspire his teams to achieve success beyond what they thought was possible.

In conclusion, Hurricane Dave Smith is highly respected in radio programming, business, and philanthropy. His leadership skills, coaching style, and dedication to his craft have made him a role model for aspiring professionals in the industry. Dave's impact on the radio industry and his community has been significant, and he continues to inspire and motivate others to reach their full potential.