

PAUL MARTIN

Paul came to Dubai in 2007 and, since his days as a top-performing sales consultant, has worked in management, brokerage, consultancy and development roles. Over the years, he held various positions at real estate companies in Dubai, including co-founder and managing director.

During his first year in Dubai, he worked for a property developer and achieved AED 750 million in sales in a 12 month period to become the company's top salesperson. Following his successful entry into the Dubai market, he moved to the advisory, brokerage and consultancy side of the real estate business.

In 2013, Paul co-founded Property Boutique with several business partners to focus on the luxury property market and provide high quality real estate services to HNWI & UHNWI clients. He is a strong believer in building long-term relationships and being a trusted advisor to his clients.

Paul has a keen interest in technology startups and worked in the DIFC Innovation Hub for two years as a co-founder for an early stage PropTech & FinTech company. Prior to moving to the UAE, he worked for financial information and insurance specialists in London, United Kingdom.

At Magnum Central, Paul focuses on prime location communities and investment opportunities in Dubai and the UAE. He often works as the exclusive representative and advisor for his clients to help them source, acquire, manage and sell real estate assets both locally and internationally.

