"I've shot too much from the time I was 8 years old.
But 'too much' is a matter of perspective.
Some people thought Mozart had too many notes in his compositions.

Let me put it this way: I entertain people who say I shoot too much. I find it very interesting.
Going back to Mozart, he responded to critics by saying there were neither too many notes or too few.
There were as many as necessary."
