Jonah Williamson

A+ Recruit - An uber-athletic multi-sport threat standing at 6'2" 200 lb., Jonah is the complete package as a future college recruit, displaying top-caliber talent and always putting in the same effort to be great both on and off the field. His natural ability for decision making and accuracy were on full display as he set the Trinity Hillers single-season passing yards record as a sophomore and guided his team to the WPIAL playoffs. Meanwhile, PBR Pennsylvania described him as a "name to know" heading into his next season on the baseball diamond where he excelled both at and behind the plate. Boasting a 4.5 GPA, Jonah also leads the way in the classroom serving as student council class president.
