WELCOME TO 4-H

Great things are in store as you experience all 4-H has to offer! 4-H focuses on curriculum and activities in areas such as agriculture, healthy living, leadership, public speaking and civic engagement.

The best thing is that 4-H has something for everyone!

ABOUT 4-H

4-H is the world's largest youth development organization for youth ages 9-19.

In Candler County, 4-H is delivered in the classroom setting to ALL 4th-6th graders by 4-H Professionals. 7th-12th graders participate in activities as a county group.

- We offer in-school and after school programming.
- Membership is free, but some extra-curricular 4-H activities do have fees to cover travel, training and other expenses.

IN-SCHOOL 4-H MEETINGS

4-H'ers Will:

- Receive standards and research-based instruction about a variety of topics.
- Give oral presentations about a topic of their choice.
- Be able to campaign, run for and serve as club officers.
- Participate in school and community service projects.
- Be encouraged to participate in other 4-H activities.
- Earn Clover Coupon rewards to redeem for 4-H prizes.

4-H'ERS LEARN

- Leadership
- Civic Responsibility
- Public Speaking
- Team work
- Creativity
- Confidence
- Listening
- Problem-solving
- Support one another
