

BAND

Keys 1 Victor Buccellato

Victor Buccellato (he/him) is a Popular Music student at USC. Hailing from Chicago, he ditched a classic rock cover band for the LA scene. His pit experience is limited but he hopes the beautiful accordion samples touch the hearts of everyone in the audience. In his free time, Victor can be found decomposing on the sofa while playing Skyrim with his housemates.

Keys 2 Jared Charney Cohen

Jared is so excited for you to see the show!

Reed John Bulda

John is currently in the graduate program here at USC earning a masters degree in Music Industry with Thornton School of Music and will graduate May 2023. He has enjoyed being part of pit orchestra for MTR's productions of Addams Family, and Once on This Island and looks forward to his final show with She Love Me. Post graduation John plans on staying in the music field of sync licensing, publishing and music supervision.

Trumpet Tali Duckworth

Tali Duckworth (she/her) is a Sophomore studying Classical Trumpet Performance and Music Production. This is Tali's third show at USC and first MTR production! Last year she played the 3rd trumpet book on SDA's A Chorus Line and played solo trumpet for SDA's Into the Woods. Tali loves trumpet but loves Star Wars even more, it is concerning how much money she has allocated to lightsabers and action figures. Anyway, the bottom line is Tali likes trumpet, Star Wars, and Broadway.

Cello Andrew Siehr

Andrew is so excited for you to see the show!

Violin

Semaj Murphy

Semaj Murphy (he/they) is a rising creative who is currently a second-year undergraduate at the University of Southern California Thornton School of Music studying violin performance under Dr. Lina Bahn and is aspiring to pursue studies in Music Industry. Semaj is a Philadelphian native, where he has studied with Amy Oshiro-Morales of the Philadelphia Orchestra and has participated in several music programs such as the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra, Snitzer String Quartet at Settlement Music School, Project 440's Youth Advisory Council, the Philadelphia Music Alliance for Youth (PMAY), the Sphinx Organization. Semaj is also an active advocate for diversity within the arts, where he has collaborated with various professionals, such as hip-hop rapper Rick Ross with the Red Bull Symphonic, NFL Honors Award Show, and The Piano Guys. Semaj aspires to break the barriers of traditional art academia and wishes to merge his multifaceted passions for classical music, string arranging, creative design, and music marketing.
