

THE AGGIE'S SPIRITS CAST

ASH KHAN (JP Morgan) left a successful medical practice in Texas to chase fame and glory in Hollywood. And while he hasn't gained much of either, he's booked a few cool TV shows like HBO's Euphoria and Dead To Me on Netflix. Besides being really good-looking and humble, Ash is an avid fencer and salsa dancer. (Should I mention that I'm single? Probably).

JESSIE EPSTEIN (Becca) is delighted to join a team of USC's finest in bringing this pilot to life (essentially fulfilling her lifelong dream of being in an episode of Friends). Her work has taken her to film festivals, off-Broadway, international theater expos, Zoom rooms, and cornfields, to name a few. She finds nothing more interesting than figuring out how something works, especially if that thing is a human being. PETER LARNEY (Jean Legende) received his BFA in Acting from USC, walking in 2004, and actually graduating in...2009? He's not sure. All he knows is that he regrets never going to a single football game, and that he feels old. Please help me. Not joking. Thank you.
