SPECIAL OFFERS

SURCHARGE PROGRAM

REDUCE OR OFFSET ALL CREDIT CARD FEES NOW!

In conjunction with Visa and MasterCard regulations, D.P.S. can help you save thousands of dollars per year! It's simple. We enable you to apply a small service fee to credit card payments and offer your clients a discount for using cash. This offsets some or all of your card fees, allowing you to reinvest the money into your business. Better yet, our point-of-sale technology automatically applies the surcharge, making it seamless for you and your customers.

MONEY-SAVING PROGRAM BENEFIT

- Reduce or offset potentially all credit card processing fees
- Surcharging is fully compliant with US bank card brand regulations
- Automatically calculated by the terminal, so you'll never need to
- Offer your customers a discount for paying with cash
- Affordably upgrade to the latest payment technology

YOU'RE IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT

Are you ready to offset potentially ALL of your credit card processing fees and keep all of your sales revenue? Now you can! While many providers do not support credit card surcharging, we make it easy and affordable to implement this money-saving benefit today.

- NO HIDDEN FEES

BRIAN 'FLEX' WYNDER

CEO

Brian Wynder is well versed in many industries of business and has a passion for helping businesses grow. Always in the trenches with his clients, he has mastered providing payment solutions for businesses of all kinds. Instead of a long lengthy bio, he prefers to let his results do the talking for him.

PATRICIA CARLIN

PAYMENTS EXPERT

If you're in the payments industry, you've likely heard of Patricia Carlin. For more than 20 years, Carlin has been on the leading edge of digital payments both in the U.S. and abroad. Her list of credentials is lengthy and is branded as one of the most influential people in payments. In fact, she was involved in the very first online merchant account in history!

Carlin crafted her career by representing the most prominent e-commerce businesses in the world and is a highly sought-after consultant by companies who need help navigating the sometimes complicated waters of global internet billing.

DAVE CARLIN

PAYMENTS EXPERT

David's life was summed up into one word: business. People start businesses for a variety of reasons, but experience is a common factor. When you are working in the real world, you sometimes find opportunities to make a service operate more efficiently.

Garnering a wealth of experience and knowledge and having been on the other side of of the digital payments industry as an owner of a wildly successful retail and e-commerce business and multiple joint ventures, he knew firsthand what struggles other business owners faced when it came to accepting payments.
