

Teambuilding Maze Passport

We know it can be kind of tough to find your way through the maze- it's designed to be that way. This passport can help guide wandering maze goers- depending on how much you know about teambuilding- through the correct pathway. When you come to a numbered sign inside the maze, stop and answer the corresponding questions on this passport. While facing the sign, turn the direction of the answer you choose.

1

The foundation of teambuilding is based on:
a. liking everyone on your team (turn right)
b. bonding between team members (turn left)
c. working toward an identified goal (turn left)

2

One of the strongest benefits derived from a team is?
a. average skills (turn right)      c. similar skills (turn right)
b. unified skills (turn left)      d. varied skills (turn left)

3

A flock of Canadian Geese fly in a "v" formation because it enables them to travel further than they could alone, just as a human team can accomplish more together than individually. How much further can a flock fly in a "v" formation?
a. 70% further (turn left)      c. 30% further (turn right)
b. 50% further (turn right)

4

Webster defines teambuilding as:
a. together everyone achieves more (turn left)
b. a group of persons acting together (turn right)
c. a group of followers and one leader (turn left)

5

Once a team is formed, its focus will remain unchanged.
a. false (turn right)      b. true (turn left)

6

The success of any team depends on the contributions of:
a. its followers (turn left)      c. its members (turn right)
b. its leader (turn left)

7

In an effective team, each member must be able to see how ____ relate to the overall goal.
a. the leader's desires (turn left)
b. his or her efforts (turn left)
c. his or her weaknesses (turn right)

8

Teamwork skills can be divided into two basic categories:
a. technical & people skills (turn left)
b. communication & work skills (turn right)

9

In an effective team, there should be free and open communication...
a. rarely (turn left)      c. most of the time (turn right)
b. some of the time (turn left)

10

One mistake a team could make would be to rush into action without taking time to:
a. plan (turn left)      c. create a team cheer (turn left)
b. compliment each other (turn right)