

STEVE LACY

Steve Lacy is a TV News Anchor, artist and music lover who has been drawing and painting as long as he can remember. Most recently, he has immersed himself in the art of screen printing. The planets aligned this Summer when he approached his friend Mark about collaborating on a project to commemorate the 30th anniversary of the release of his all-time favorite album, Appetite for Destruction.

Weissguy & Lacy is a collaboration between renowned Rock Photographer Mark Weiss and Artist Steve Lacy. They take pictures from Mark's legendary photo archive and turn them into signature, one-of-a-kind pieces of art. Have an idea? Email us and turn it into reality - WeissguyLacy@Gmail.com.

Steve Lacy is the anchor of the "FOX 5 News at 5PM" and "FOX 5 News at 10PM" at WNYW-TV, the Fox Television flagship station in New York City. He has been in this role since January of 2013.

Previously, he co-anchored "Good Day Wakeup" and "Good Day Early Call" on Fox 5, weekdays from 4:30 to 7AM. He also reported for "Good Day New York" with Greg Kelly and Rosanna Scotto.

Lacy joined FOX 5 in August of 2011 from WCVB-TV in Boston, where he was co-anchor of the weekend "EyeOpener" and general assignment reporter.

Prior to his time in Boston, Lacy anchored the morning and noon newscasts at WWLP-TV in Springfield, Massachusetts. He started his career as an anchor / reporter / photographer / editor / producer at WVII-TV in Bangor, Maine.
