

September 2024 SECURITY

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
1 Secure all sensitive security information	2 Remain abreast with all security changes.	3 Don't be complacent	4 Have a positive "can-do" approach to security and recognize the importance of	5 Ask questions to check that processes are followed	6 If the screened cargo sticker is not applied to the cargo, do not load it.	7 Don't procrastinate then use shortcuts to make up on lost time.
8 Don't be complacent.	9 Know your local law enforcement contacts and ensure it is posted for the team.	10 Identify rules or procedures that are impractical or not secure.	11 Immediately escalate security mistakes, risks, issues and threats up the management chain.	12 Ask questions to check that processes are followed.	13 Always maintain separation between screened and unscreened cargo.	14 Know the commodity of the consignment before you begin screening the cargo.
15 Know who your RSMs are.	16 If the screened cargo sticker is not applied to the cargo, do not load it.	17 Secure all sensitive security information.	18 Remain abreast with all security changes.	19 Have a positive "can-do" approach to security and recognize the importance of learning.	20 Don't be complacent.	21 Don't procrastinate then use shortcuts to make up on lost time.
22 Support your colleagues to get security right.	23 Know your local law enforcement contacts and ensure it is posted for the team.	24 Identify rules or procedures that are impractical or not secure.	25 Immediately escalate security mistakes, risks, issues and threats up the management chain.	26 Ask questions to check that processes are followed.	27 Secure all sensitive security information.	28 If the screened cargo sticker is not applied to the cargo, do not load it.
29 Always maintain separation between screened and unscreened cargo.	30 Look out for security risks and issues					