

Personal momentum coaching with Jack Tanenbaum

The program:

- Weekly 30 minute meetings.
- Daily personal messages.
- Personalized for your goals.

Requirements → An honest desire to reach your potential.

Costs → $60 a week (first week free but billed in 4 week increments.)

- 20% off for those under 21, veterans, and if bought in 12 week increments.

My philosophy is that we have four great relationships in life.

- 1) Your relationship with yourself (mental and physical).
- 2) Your relationship with others (romantic, family, friends etc).
- 3) Your relationship with money.
- 4) Your relationship with fun.

Sometimes we need to prioritize some relationships but it can be dangerous to neglect others for too long. Does it really matter how much money you make if your mental and physical health deteriorate? Conversely, consistently prioritizing short term fun and pleasure is dangerous as well.

By working together we will create a personalized plan that fits your goals and ambitions. Give me just 4 weeks and the results will speak for themselves.
