

AYA IWAMOTO

Japan Outreach Initiative (JOI) Coordinator

University of Central Oklahoma

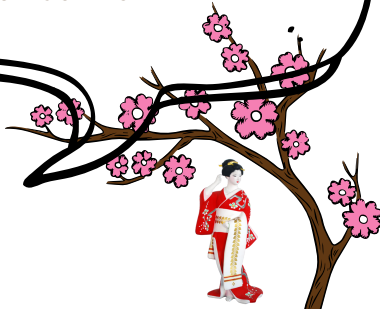

Office of Global Affairs / International House

100 North University Drive Edmond, OK 73034

(405)974-3842

aiwamoto@uco.edu

こんにちは！ (Hello)
I'm from Kyoto, Japan.
I have experienced teaching children English and working at Japanese company in Japan. If you are interested in having Japanese cultural activities or presentation,
please contact me.

WHAT IS JOI COORDINATOR?

Japan Outreach Initiative (JOI) is a grassroots program that is co-administered by the Japan Foundation Center of Global Partnership (CGP) and a US non-profit organization, Laurasian Institution.

JOI aims to promote awareness and understanding of Japan in regions of the United States with relatively few Japan-related opportunities.

ACTIVITIES & PRESENTATION

- Demonstrations of arts, crafts, toys, food, music, etc.; origami, cooking, anime, calligraphy, chopsticks challenge, Japanese traditional game
- Presentations on pop culture, education, government, economy, etc.
- Language and culture competitions for K-16 students
- Tutoring Japanese language students at universities
- Teaching business etiquette and useful phrases for travelers

